The University of Ottawa does not tolerate any form of sexual violence. Sexual Violence refers to any act of a sexual nature committed without consent, such as sexual assault (including rape), sexual harassment or online harassment. See University policies 67a and 66. To report an incident of sexual violence or to obtain confidential support regarding an incident, the following resources are available to you.

Emergencies: In the case of an imminent threat of sexual violence or sexual violence in progress, on campus call 911 or Protection Services 613-562-5411; off campus call 911.

Seeking Support and Decision Making:
Some survivors of sexual violence may seek support and/or advice prior to deciding whether to proceed with any form of reporting/file a formal report of any kind including a police report and/or take any other legal or non-legal actions. This support may assist in the decision-making process. Others may choose not to report or take legal steps but will still seek support from professionals who specialize in the area of sexual violence (prevention and supporting survivors). If this is the type of support you are looking for, the following organizations offer confidential services without judgement. The professionals at these organizations will listen to you, offer to direct you to other services you may need, and support you in your choices throughout.
